

Amanda Eason

May 29, 1984 - April 4, 2014

Amanda Marie Eason, age 29, passed away unexpectedly on April 4, 2014. She was born as a miracle baby on May 29, 1984 in Tomball, Texas. Mandy was full of life as a child and loved to play. When she was 4, she told Make-A-Wish that she wanted to see where Mickey lived and they arranged for her to go to Disney World. She graduated from Oak Ridge High School in 2003 and attended San Jacinto for Wedding Planning. As she got older, she became more passionate about her family and wanted to always spend time together with them. Mandy adored her nieces and being an aunt. In her free time, Mandy was an avid reader and loved to travel to new places. She met her soul-mate, Esther, a little over two years ago and they have enjoyed their new adventure together. She was preceded in death by her aunt, Cynthia Cromwell Clay and her grandfather, Earl Eason. She is survived by her parents, Teresa and Chad Easley and George and Belinda Eason; fiancée, Esther Hernandez; sister, Staci Easley; brother, Travis Blancett and wife Danielle; half-sisters, Hannah and Grace Eason; nieces, Jenabeth and Annilynn Blancett; grandparents, Patricia Cromwell, Doreen and James Easley and Myrna Eason; aunts, uncles, cousins and other family members too numerous to mention but no less loved. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal Have Hope, Be Strong, Laugh Loud, & Play Hard; Live in the moment, Smile Often, Dream Big, Remember You Are Loved, AND Never Ever Give Up

Comments

“ I love you hon, I will always love you. I know you are looking down on us from "holes in the floor of heaven". I miss you. I will miss you forever. I'll keep in touch with your parents and Staci and Travis and much as they will let me. Rest well and make me a spot next to you when my turn comes please.

Stephanie Gaudin - July 29, 2014 at 12:00 AM