“ Diane was my loving sister she picked me up when I was crying she comfort me when I was scared she protected me when it was needed in life she has always been there for me Now in death she can rest in peace I will carry her memories in my heart so I can sleep in peace Knowing that she is being loved my are father above. Though I know that there will always be in pain the tears will fall like rain she knows that I will always Love her the same

“ Every time I saw her, she was smiling.....every time I was around her we laughed. Now....., every time I think of her.....I cry.
I miss her
