December 29, 1926 - February 7, 2017

Gloria Bernice Sullins Parr passed away on February 7, 2017. She was born on December 29, 1926 in Fayetteville, Arkansas to Jessie Allen Sullins and Edna Jessie Pearl Sullins. She left Arkansas for California with her mom and brother when she was 8 years old. They settled in La Habra, California where she lived until 1953. When Gloria was in high school, her brother Logan introduced her to his good friend, Robert Parr, who she married a few years later. She was a devoted wife and mother and good friend and role model to many. Gloria was preceded in death by her husband and by her son, Alan. She is survived by her son, Larry, who lives in Conroe, Texas and her daughter, Beth Powers, who lives in The Woodlands Texas with her husband Robert. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Phillip and Lara Abdallah and Johnathan, Julia, and Jimmy Powers.

“ There is no way I can ever express my profound sadness. Still, she lived 90 years and I was fortunate enough to share the last 7 or 8 years of her life. Those are memories I will always treasure.

“ I first met Gloria and the family when Don and I were engaged in July 1966. They invited us to Green Valley where they had a cabin for the 4th of July. Gloria was very gracious and later in 1968 when I was pregnant with Mike she gave me my first baby shower. Later in 1970 when I was working for Santa Fe Drilling she babysat Mike for us. It was a Blessing knowing he was with family.

“ I loved my Aunt Gloria.....I have so many special memories when we were growing up! She'll be so missed! I know she's rejoicing in heaven with mama and lots of our family.....
The loss is ours, not hers. All the family is in my heart and prayers! Praying that God would surround you with His love, peace and comfort!
Love and hugs to all, Sandra Ferguson Raymond.....

“ Staying up late just talking and laughing. The tea parties we had when I was little. Teaching me and my friends arts and crafts. Listening to everything I have to say and just being the best friend that I have ever had.
