“ I'm so saddened to hear of Jackie's passing. I used to babysit Jackolyn when she was 4-6 yrs old. She was such a sweet lady and brightened my days when I still think back about my times with the family. Forever in my heart. My heart and prayers go out to David and the family. Love, Elisabeth

“ My name is Martha Coleman. I met Jackie and David through my son and his wife, Les and Lisa Harris.
It was comforting to see that David took responsibility for Jackie's care at home, rather than moving her to a nursing home, etc. When they visited in the Harris home, Jackie was always beautifully dressed in suits or crisp, dressy slacks w/matching top. Her weekly trips to see Lisa at the salon kept her hair in perfect shape at all times.

Jackie was a sweet, humble lady. She would talk about things at a slower rate than others but if one was patient, it was worth waiting for. Jackie's face revealed her heart which was kind and caring. Her family and friends will surely have a "hole" in their lives without her.

“ David... I am so saddened to hear about Jackie's passing. I so enjoyed talking to both of you at Lisa's as we were waiting to get beautiful. You are such a strong and loving husband. My mom, Virginia, and I have you and your family in our prayers. Of course we will storm the heavens with prayers for our sweet Jackie...Lori and Virginia
