

Linda Gayle Merryfield

February 14, 1945 - August 17, 2019

Linda Gayle Merryfield, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, August 17, 2019.

She was born on February 14, 1945, in Sikeston, Missouri to Orville and Grace Griffith. Linda grew up in Porter, Oklahoma where she attended Central High School in Muskogee, Oklahoma. She married Frank Merryfield on June 18, 1965. Linda was a homemaker and worked with special education students at New Caney ISD. She was a member of the Church of Christ, Conroe, Texas.

Linda took tremendous pride in her quilting and sewing; she was an active member of the Golden Needles Quilt Guild. She also loved baking with her grandchildren, especially during the holidays and fair time and attending fair functions and sporting events for them.

She is survived by her husband Frank of 54 years; sisters, Louise Sarty, Doris Hartney, Mary Ann Jones; brother, Orville Griffith; her eldest son, Keeth Merryfield and wife Danette, of Splendora, TX, youngest son, Jon Merryfield and wife Kayla, of Conroe, Texas; grandchildren, Tori Marsh and husband, Mitchell, Reagan Merryfield, Trey Merryfield, and Mackenzie Merryfield; and soon to be born great grandson, Cooper Marsh.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that any donations be made to a charity of your choosing.

“ During a very dark period in my life she told me one evening,
Honey, those things that don't kill you will make you stronger,,,
I never forgot that, I still share it with friends in need,

“ I grew up with Jon and Keeth and Frank and Linda. So many great memories of Linda calling my mom to see if she knew what Jon, Keeth, myself and Gabby had done that day and vice versa. Soft spoken and cool calm and collected and a sweet lady. Jon, Keeth are like brothers to me and my family. Sending prayers for entire Merryfield family and friends. The Robertson kids.
