

Mark Warren Downs

August 29, 1959 - November 26, 2019

He wasn't a doctor, a lawyer or a cop, he held no college degree.
He could've been successful, gone straight to the top.
But that was not meant to be.

He was a handsome young man in the prime of his life, the ladies would gather around.
Until the day he met drug dealer Steve and his world would soon crumble down.

He lived in the streets, the wrong side of the law, he begged, he borrowed he stole.
He broke the hearts of his family and friends, a poor, homeless lost soul.

He had no life, no children or wife, his world slowly descends.
But drug dealer Steve was able to come clean, has a job, a family and friends.

Try as we might we could not save him, for he would not save himself.
He was too far gone to the other side, no shame, no fame no health.

Now I recall a different boy, way back when we were young.
A boy who loved horses, played hide and seek, and caught raindrops on his tongue.

We'll never understand the path he chose or maybe it chose him.
He left no footprint on this place we call Earth, but he was our brother and we loved him.

Rest in peace Mark. You are finally free

Comments

“ 1 file added to the album Mark's life through the years.....

Dolly Crockett - December 15, 2019 at 06:11 PM

“ I remember going to the storage unit Gran Gran and Tom Tom were managing many years ago and visiting with him. I must of been 5 or 6 but the Downs men being so tall he looked like such a giant to me. This memory is so vivid to me. I can remember where everyone was standing, and even everyone's smiles and laughter. I'll always hold on to that memory.

Ashley Ballesteros - December 05, 2019 at 01:24 PM

“ It's funny how certain memories from our youth are still so vivid in our minds years on down the road. I think he was the tallest of my three brothers with your dad coming in a close second. Thanks for sharing your memory. I love you Ashley. Aunt Dolly

Dolly Crockett - December 11, 2019 at 09:04 AM

“ Dolly lit a candle in memory of Mark Warren Downs

Dolly - November 29, 2019 at 03:40 PM

“ Ms. Dolly,

May the constant love of caring friends soften your sadness,
May cherished memories bring you moments of comfort,
May lasting peace surround your grieving heart...

Samson,

Samson - November 29, 2019 at 04:40 PM

“ 17 files added to the album Mark's life through the years.....

Dolly - November 29, 2019 at 03:36 PM