

Paulette Willard

December 22, 1955 - December 7, 2016

Paulette Willard, age 60, passed away on December 7, 2016. She was born on December 22, 1955 in Pasadena, Texas and graduated from Pasadena Dobie in 1974 before attending San Jacinto Jr. College. Paulette worked in the accounting profession for several companies over the years. For the past few years, she had lived with her mother helping to care for her. Paulette touched the lives of many with her big heart and love of people and especially kids.

She was preceded in death by her father, John Willard; sister, Patricia Willard McAdams; and brother, Greg Willard. Paulette is survived by her mother, Helen Willard; sisters, Laura Haugen and Nancy Robb; and numerous nieces, nephews and many close friends.

A memorial service will be held at 11 am on Tuesday, December 13, 2016 at Eickenhorst Funeral Services, 1712 N. Frazier at Wilson, Suite 115, Conroe, Texas 77301.

Events

DEC Celebration of Life 11:00AM

13

Eickenhorst Funeral Services

1712 North Frazier Ste. 115, Conroe, TX, US, 77301

Comments

“ Dear Mrs Willard, Laura, Nancy and extended family. The death of our own child seems just plain wrong, it's beyond the 'natural order' of things. We mothers and fathers are supposed to part before our children. When I heard the news, I just wanted to hold you in my arms, so I prayed instead, and lit a candle in my garden in memory and respect of Paulette. In Godspeed. mariamcadams

"We all know that something is eternal. And it ain't houses and it ain't names, and it ain't earth, and it ain't even the stars . . . everybody knows in their bones that something is eternal, and that something has to do with human beings. All the greatest people ever lived have been telling us that for five thousand years and yet you'd be surprised how people are always losing hold of it. There's something way down deep that's *eternal about every human being. - Thornton Wilder, Our Town

mariamcadams - December 13, 2016 at 04:18 PM