“ You made everyone smile when we're with you. Your whole persona was being happy and care free. You made me and papa feel so loved. You always thought of others before thinking of yourself. We love you so much and we will keep you alive in our hearts til we see you again. You are our Angel gone home to be wit our Father God. Love you forever, Meme and Papa.

“ My sweet dear friend Rachell, I am honored to have called you my friend. You lit up a room with just your smile. Your caring heart and bubbly personality was something I always admired about you. I will never forget the precious memories I have with you, and all the experiences we shared together with Brooklynn and Macen. Being room moms together, field trips, coupon shopping trips, birthday parties and summer fun are some of my favorite memories we shared. You were an inspiration to all those around you, and your daily Facebook posts were something that brightened my days. I will always remember your smile and laughter and keep that in my heart forever. May you rest in peace my sweet friend.

“ I have so many fun memories growing up with Rachell and Destiny even though y'all were my third cousins y'all felt more like first cousins due to us being so close in age, Every Summer and Holidays I looked forward to hanging out with y'all and it was never a dull moment! One hilarious memory was when we came and visited y'all in Galveston I think Uncle Doug and Myrt were staying in a condo there and there was a slide that went into the water off a little deck we had the best worst day ever playing first Brandon cut his leg on some barnacle growing off the deck and then Rachell got stung by a jellyfish, so we got out of the water and then Destiny stepped on a palm needle and it was stuck in her foot it was CRAZY!! Also all us girls had lost the butt of our bathing suits due to the sandpaper slide lol! There was another time we went yalls house in Beaumont and played on the trampoline with either bubbles or soap we had a blast but y'all always knew how to have fun! I am so thankful to have got to spend all the time I did with Rachell and I am glad I followed her on FB and Instagram she was inspiring, beautiful, goofy, happy, and she LOVED GOD!! She has inspired me to continue to live life like crazy for God but with ALL my heart just like she did , I'm sad she's gone but happy she did Gods will with her life and is home with him, what a testimony even in the end To truly live your life for the Lord.

“ There are not enough words to say how I feel about you Rae Rae! My heart hurts because I miss you soooo bad yet my spirit rejoices in knowing you are in the arms of Your True Love!

Your laugh, your beautiful eyes, your giving heart, your hard headedness, the ghettoness, your strength, the way you could light up a room, an awesome Mom, your tell it like it is personality,determination, you would not take NO as an answer, cheerleader encouragement, lover of God, REAL, honest, overcomer, are just a few of the things of You I'm gunna miss! My love for you goes beyond death. I know you will be with me every time I step foot on foriegn soil for The Kingdom of God! I wubz ju xoxo “ Rachell, although your dad has been one of my dearest friends for years, & I spent time with your precious daughter Brook has been to my home before I had an opportunity with you, the short time I was blessed to spend with you was a treasure. Your quick-witted banter with me was so much fun. I was looking forward to our friendship & the possibility God might use us to minister to others together. This will have to wait, but gives me another reason to look forward to my blessed hope. Because Christ's light shined so bright in you, your testimony will live on in Brook, family & friends who remain.

Ironically, you passed on to your eternal home on the exact day my beloved husband went home last year. I had been asking the Lord to allow me to see, to give me a glimpse of George & what he was busy doing in heaven. After you went home, He gave me a vision of you standing on the right of my husband, my bff Susan Winn on his left with his arm on each shoulder. The three of you were grinning from ear to ear, but you Rachell had such a grin it was almost....goofy & you were waving as if to say; I MADE IT! I AM SO HAPPY!! YOU GOTTA SEE THIS!!!

That was the end of the brief vision, but it was enough. For those who knew George, he didn't know a stranger & would talk to anyone about the Lord. Wonder if the three of you were given a job to be a greeter? You know, like the ones at Walmart! See you soon!

“ Rachell, Where do I start? You were one of a kind, from the time you were a young child all the way until you became the wonderful mother to Brooklynn. You were always a good hearted person with a lot of personality. The room could be quiet and let you enter it livened up immediately! I never knew what was going to come out of your mouth. I remember one day you were at my house and my mom was over and I notice you and mom were by yourself and you were showing her your stomach ring and others things, you had her laughing, I really think she was in shock but she brought that up several times in the last decade, you either scarred her or made a funny memory. I have so many memories off you, you were a bright sunshine with a heart of gold. I will miss you but I know you are where you wanted to be. Our world will be quieter without you in it but that's okay because I know Heaven is rejoicing because you are there. This is not goodbye but I will see you one day on the other side. I love you, Rachell....You are missed.

“ I knew you best as a little girl, and have only talked to you on Facebook in recent years. But I do remember your smile and huge caring heart; that and you kept everyone on their toes. You were the girl that brought the sunshine in with her smile. I'll never forget that. I've watched via Facebook, as you grew into a wonderful devoted mother, and grown wise and steady in your faith. My heart breaks for your Mom, Dad, Brooklynn, Destiny, and the rest of your family and friends. I'm so blessed to have known you.

“ I love you with ALL my heart. I still cannot fathom the idea that you are gone. I wish I could have been there to see the grand celebration that was held when you entered the gates of Heaven. I know once you locked eyes with the lover of your soul, that everything that once was is now no longer. You are where you longed to be, dancing in the arms of Daddy God. I am not ready to say goodbye, so instead I say " I'll see you on the other side little mamma." We will take good care of your baby while you are away. I will strive to be more like you. You were my baby, my friend, my princess warrior. But now sweet girl your dream came true and now you are the Perfect Beautiful Bride. Rest in peace my fierce angel and I will see you soon. With all my heart, Love Mom
